CUPID'S MISTAKE.
"Tis useless, foolish Cupid,
To aim at him your dart;
For can't you see—you stupid!
That he has lost his heart?
"Why so he has!" said Cupid;
"I'll aim, sweet maid, at you!
For, though I may be stupid,
I see that you have two!"
—George Hyde.

SOCIAL EVENTS

The evening was a most enjoyable one for those present.

JEALOUS HUSBAND.

Shot His Young Wife, Who Has a Sister in This City.

A terrible tragedy was enacted a few days ago at Champaign, Ill., in which the principals to the bloody affair were but recent visitors to our city.

Mrs. Clara Hickman, the victim of the brutal and bloody assault, was a sister of Mrs. Godfrey Lipp of West Third street.

It appears the husband was insanely jealous of his handsome wife, but friends and neighbors say without just cause and in consequence treated her so harshly that she was compelled to leave him and seek shelter under the roof of her parents.

A few days later he forced his way into the home, and in the presence of the horror-stricken mother the enraged husband shot the pleading wife three times, one ball entering the mouth and coming out the back of the head. He then fled to his own home and standing in front of a mirror he cut his throat and stabbed himself with a razor-edged butcher knife, inflicting wounds that have probably ended his life by this time.

There are hopes of the recovery of the wife. Mrs. Hickman was about 23 and her husband a few years her senior.

Stepped Against a Hot Stove.

A child of Mrs. Geo. T. Benson, when getting his usual Saturday night bath, stepped back against a hot stove which burned him severely. The child was in great agony and his mother could do nothing to pacify him. Remembering that she had a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm in the house, she thought she would try it. In less than half an hour after applying it the child was quiet and asleep, and in less than two weeks was well. Mrs. Benson is a well known resident of Kellar, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic ointment and especially valuable for burns, cuts, bruises and sprains. For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.

A Good Name.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and do their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge or weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

CLIMATIC CURES.

The influence of climatic conditions in the cure of consumption is very much overdrawn. The poor patient, and the rich patient, too, can do much better at home by proper attention to food digestion and a regular use of German Syrup. Free expectation in the morning is made certain by German Syrup; so is a good night's rest and the absence of that weakening cough and debilitating night sweat. Restless nights and the exhaustion due to coughing, the greatest danger and dread of the consumptive, can be prevented or stopped by taking German Syrup liberally and regularly. Should you be able to go to a warmer climate, you will find that of the thousands of consumptives there, the few who are benefited and regain strength are those who use German Syrup. Trial bottles, 25c; regular size, 75c. At Henry W. Ray's, next door to Postoffice.

There is One Society

Whose members can be instantly detected, for they wear its badge publicly. It is the Society of Well Shod Women who wear "Dorothy Dodd" Shoes.

The stylish woman is easily known by her shoes. When the fashion writers talk of "the style of a Dorothy Dodd Shoe" they mean it has the distinction which attaches to the leaders of society.

A woman may be on the outer door-mats of society, but if she wears stylish shoes her feet have entered the sacred portals at least.
